Diamonds!

The letter in the value of $1400000 in its investment is rapidly becoming a popular one. There are excellent reasons for this.

First, they are eagerly sought after by everybody. Their extreme brilliance and beauty together with their durability and steadily going value make them especially desirable as an investment as they can at a pinch be readily turned into cash. Many a person has been saved great inconvenience through possession of a diamond ring.

We have some exceptional values at this time. The fact is, every sensible person knows that in the dull summer season things are sold more cheaply than at any other time. We can show you extraordinary values also in our glass and silverware. Call and see us.
